

The school aims at preparing the children to face the challenging world.

The emphasis is on a well all round personality and a responsible citizen of tomorrow.

To educate for life, not merely for living.

In addition to impart a high standard of education, the institution instills in the pupils respect for each other's religious belief, pride in their cultural heritage, and an awareness of international events.